SENIORS PLAN THEIR ANNUAL INCINERATION

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Jan. 14-At a meeting of the senior class of Purdue University yesterday it was decided to celebrate the completion of the course in mechanics by holding the annual "Burning of Mechanics," a custom inaugurated by the elaborate scale than last year. It will take place in two weeks, when the second semester begins, and will consist of a programme of "stunts" by the appointed fourth-year men. The celebration will be held on the campus and after the speeches and poems a huge representation of the text-book of mechanics will be consigned to the flames and a mock funeral sermon preached. Under classmen will be present at the ceremony and it is probable that a half-day will be devoted to the exercises. The seniors also voted to award jerseys to the members of the class athletic team. Professor John H. Skinner, of Purdue, will leave next Monday for Lincoln, Neb. attend the annual meeting of the Nebraskia Agricultural Society and deliver lectures. He will speak before the Swine Breeders' Association on "Breeding Care and Feeding of Hogs," and before the Improved Live Stock Breeders' Association on the topic, "The Type of Horse for

The evidence was of such a nature as to make it apparent to the commissioners that the purpose was to wear out the remonstrators, and, after listening to the monotonous questioning for two weeks they grew weary, and informed the attorneys damus requiring the County Commission-for the publicans they would no longer listen to the examination.

This angered the attorneys, who, after the ommissioners adjourned in disgust, made application to the Circuit Court for the egularly at every session of the Board of mandamus, which was granted to-day, and Commissioners of Wabash county, took a the commissioners have been brought back, new turn to-day, when Judge Plummer, of and will be forced to listen to the testi-
